“China, what’s next?
China’s Post - Olympic Challenges”

On Tuesday, October 28, 2008 at noon

at University Club of Montreal
2047 Mansfield Street in Montreal

Guest Speaker

Solange F. Casiez, Acc. Dir.
Strategic development and relationship management

Mrs. Casiez is a senior executive with extensive experience in the financial sector. She has more than 25 years of experience in business development for complex deals and relationship management for strategic institutional clients. She has worked for international financial corporations (trust, fund administration, insurance) and as a consultant for industrial and consumer goods.

Mrs. Casiez will be discussing China’s challenges after the Olympic Games. Her presentation will focus on the rise of a giant and its Olympic challenge as well as its internal problems. She will discuss proposed solutions and risk management and governance issues, as well as the pressure exerted on the rest of the world and the future outlook.
