The Canadian Foundation
for Professional Administration

Fondation Canadienne pour l'Administration Professionnelle

Objectives

- To strengthen the administrative profession in Canada
- To unite administrative sub-specialties within the larger, general context of the administration profession
- To make available descriptions of what constitutes good administration
- To promote a professional approach to the administrative role
- To strengthen the numerous professional associations in administration; both those that focus on administrative specialties, and those in general administrative practice
- To promote ethical standards for the administrative practitioner
- To assist substantially in the professional development of administrators

Promoting excellence in professional administration in Canada through:

- Research into administrative practice
- Grants for administrative projects
- Publications
- Contact between professional bodies
- Professional development
- Promoting communication amongst administrative specialists
- Education
- Promoting the Profession of Administration
