SPEAKER

Lauren Bernardi

Lauren has been practising law for more than 17 years. Lauren received her law degree from Osgoode Hall Law School and also has a degree in psychology. Her expertise has been quoted in national newspapers and she has been a guest expert on CBC Radio.

Lauren is the author of a leading book on workplace policies, "Powerful Employment Policies" (Canada Law Book). She has also written numerous articles on human resource law for various business publications, including Canadian HR Reporter and Canadian Employment Law Today. For eight years, Lauren was the legal columnist for Canadian Manager magazine.

Described as an "exceptional speaker who explains the law in terms that everyone can understand", Lauren has presented sessions to thousands of individuals throughout all regions of Ontario on a broad range of workplace issues.
