Essentials of Corporate Governance – A Professional Development Seminar

With the prominence of “corporate governance” in recent headlines, the evidence of not having good corporate governance is obvious. If you’re not already an expert, refine your knowledge and skills to be chief adviser in corporate governance to your board at Chartered Secretaries Canada’s Essentials of Corporate Governance workshop. Included as part of the course material is ICSA’s International Qualifying Scheme (IQS) Study Guide on Corporate Governance (312 pages).

What: Full-day workshop on the Essentials of Corporate Governance

Who: Board Directors, Corporate Secretaries

When: April 10, 8:30-4:30

Where: Calgary, Register for location

How: Register at: www.icsacanada.org/WorkshopReg (closes Monday, April 7). Seating is limited to encourage group interaction.

Chartered Secretaries Canada is federally incorporated non-profit and is the Canadian Division of the ICSA (Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators), an international network of 70,000+ corporate secretaries and governance professionals. We offer the only international designations in governance and corporate secretaryship, ACIS and FCIS.
